CLOCK TURNED BACK. REMAINS A MYSTERY.

Texas Legislature Did Not Adjourn Long After Noon.

GOVERNOR OBJECTS.

He Refused to Sign Bills Passed after the Correct Time for Adjournment and His Action May Be Tested in Courts.

Austin, Tex., April 10.—Governor Sayers established a new precedent yesterday and one that possibly will be tested as to the validity of his action.

The legislature adjourned at 1:30 o'clock, correct time, but by the clocks in the house and senate it was exactly noon, the time set for the sine die adjournment.

The hands of the clock were turned back several times in order to allow bills to be enrolled so the governor could sign them before noon.

The governor, however, declined to be a party to the fiction. He refused to turn his clock back, but let it run on standard time.

The governor would permit no one to monkey with his time-piece, and he noted the time of the reception of each bill in his office. A number of bills reached him after the sure enough noon hour, when the legislature was supposed to have adjourned and he refused to sign them. Among these measures is the land bill, over which there has been so much grief and hard labor.

In the house the bill reserving to the state, mineral rights on school, university and asylum lands hereafter leased or sold was passed finally under a suspension of the rules.

The bill providing that upon the petition of a majority of the voters, the commissioners' court may alter the boundaries of an independent school district, was passed finally.

The bill prohibiting the manufacture and sale of cigarettes was passed.

The house concurred in the senate amendments to the Henrick firecracker bill.

Mr. Henderson of Lamar, filed the report of the free conference committee on the land bill and it was adopted.

The house concurred in senate amendments to the bill donating the occupation and ad valorem taxes in Brazoria county for two years to the county, to be used to repair bridges and roads, and it was adopted. The amendments reduce the donations to three-quarters of the taxes.

The Galveston grade raising bill was agreed to as passed by the house and the bill was signed by the governor.

The speaker appointed the following reapportionment committees:

Congressional—Ellis, chairman; Schluter, Wells of Red river, Evans, Harbison, Gricham, Lively, Napier, Robertson of Harrison, Henderson of Henderson, Cole, Connally, Ellas, Aldrich, Greer, Adair, Griggs, McKnight, Lane, Jones, McFall, Kyle, Murray, Nicholson, Little, Garner, Willingham, Craddock, Bryan, Decker, Stewart and Talbot.

Senatorial—Moran, chairman; Hurt, Williams, Henderson of Lamar, Wells of Grayson, Pierson, Strother, Doan, Hendrick, Morrow, Stollenwreck, Hamilton, Ackerman, Glenn, Perry, Searcy, Goodlett, Robertson of Williamson, Greenwood, Green, Willacy, Morsound, Bridger, Palmer, Phillips, Hawkins, Houts, Moran and Rowland.

Representatives—Morrow, chairman. Hunt, Roach, Calvin, Walker, Mulkey, Goodman, Marsh, Blalock, Morrow, Fears, Terrell of McLennan, Fountain, Terrell of Cherokee, Pickett, Morris, Cuney, Tarpey, Tinkler, Porter, Moore, Beatty, Thurmond, Russell, Nowlin, Mc Innis, McClellan, Tharp, Gray of Eastland, Buller, Muggs, and Doyle.

The session of the senate was without special interest except a kick about the turning of the clock back.

A committee of five senators were appointed to assist in entertaining the president while in Austin.

The conference committee's report on the land bill was agreed to.

The house's cigarette bill was finally passed.

The senate apportionment committee met immediately after adjournment and authorized its chairman, Senator Harris of Bexar, to employ clerks and experts to secure and prepare all necessary data and statistics.

Many Bills Signed.

Austin, April 10.—The governor this morning signed a big batch of local road laws and bills changing time for holding the district courts, approved the Fort Worth charter, but took no action on the general appropriation bill.

His Place Filled Temporarily.

Paris, April 10.—Owing to the illness of M. Waldeck-Rousseau, premier and minister of the interior, George Leygues, minister of public instruction and worship, has been appointed as minister of the interior ad interim.

Robbery of the Vault of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse.

THEFT DONE AT SEA.

Three Gold Bars Were Taken Valued at $22,750 and Although All on Board Were Searched No Clue Was Found.

New York, April 10.—The robbery at sea of the specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse seems a mysterious crime. Apparently there has been a complete failure to locate either the missing gold bullion or the men who took it, although all persons aboard were searched.

Three bars of gold aggregating in value $22,750 and were shipped by the National City bank of New York and stolen from cask No. 4 of the specie room somewhere between this port and Cherbourg.

Advices to Oelrichs & Co., agent for the company came in German and on the point as to whether the specie room was broken open or entered by picking the lock admits of transmission in either way.

The specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is iron bound and almost as strong as a vault. Its door was secured by a patent lock for which there are but two keys. One of the keys was kept by the chief officer, the other by the purser. The bars of gold were packed in oak casks, bound with iron hoops. Thousands of dollars in gold were within reach of those who forced their way into the strong room, but only the sum named was taken.

Important to Populists.

Cincinnati, April 10.—The national committee of the People's Party at St. Louis last December provided for a referendum vote on the changing of the name to Populists, on public ownership, of certain means and production and distribution and other issues. National Chairman Joe A. Parker has fixed the time for this vote at 2 p. m., on Saturday, May 4, at usual voting places. He also issued a call for the national committee of the middle-of-the-roads to meet in Detroit on July 4.

John Baxter Dead.

New York, April 10.—John Brady Baxter, one of the most prominent organizers of the Brooklyn and New York Casket company and the president of the Harris Brick company of Ohio, is dead at his home in Williamsburg, L. I. He was born in Alabama and at the breaking out of the rebellion enlisted in the Confederate army. His father, John Baxter, was a major of the United States army during the Seminole war. After the war Mr. Baxter moved to Philadelphia and later settled in Brooklyn.

Through Texas to Mexico.

Kansas City, April 10.—President A. E. Stillwell of the projected Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad confirms a dispatch from Chihuahua, Mex., stating that a contract had been let for the construction of the road between Kansas City and San Angelo, Tex. The road will cross the Rio Grande at Presidente del Norte, but the bridge connecting the countries will have to be built. The distance of 200 miles between Kansas City and Wichita, Kas., will be built this summer, says President Stillwell.

Extension of Rio Grande Road.

Fort Worth, Tex., April 10.—It is learned here that the Fort Worth and Rio Grande Railroad company, will begin extension at once of its line from Brownwood to Brady, a distance of 50 miles. The bridge over the Colorado river has already been arranged for. Material for building the extension is now being received at Brownwood. It is not learned whether this work is being done by the Rio Grande or Frisco. It is believed here the latter company is back of the extension.

Fatally Hurt in a Runaway.

Pana, Ill., April 10.—While driving up an elevation here William Enig met with an accident which physicians say will prove fatal. When nearing the top the horses became uncontrollable and ran off the driveway and horses, man and wagon fell a distance of about 20 feet. The wagon was filled with corn. Enig is a wealthy farmer.

Killed His Wife and Suicided.

Louisville, April 10.—Temporarily crazed, it is believed, by reading some emotional literature, which is thought to have aroused a latent jealousy, Henry Devere, aged 20 years, cut the throat of Bertha Devere, a 19-year-old baide of two months. After killing his wife he cut his own throat, dying almost instantly.

General Turchin Insane.

Nashville, Ill., April 10.—Brigadier General John B. Turchin, soldier, scholar and author, is insane and confined in the county jail in this city, whence he will be transferred to the Anna asylum. General Turchin was born in Russia.

THE GREAT REVIVAL.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

The curtain at the Grand opera house went up Tuesday night for the gospel of Christ to be preached over the footlights, and an immense audience was present to hear it. Upstairs and down the house was packed, and one half expected to see the s. r. o. sign hung out. Mr. Ramsey and the singers did their part and then George Stuart took up the gospel cudgel and clubbed the ungodly, in and out of the church, until the devil must have begun to get nervous about the old town.

So then everyone of us shall give account of himself unto God.—Rom. xiv: 12. This was the text and the theme was accountability and influence. Everybody in the world is headed straight for the judgment. When asked what was the greatest thought he ever entertained, Daniel Webster said: "My personal accountability to God Almighty." Men stay out of the church because there are sinners and hypocrites in it. No organization of men is perfect. One of the twelve chosen by the Master was a Judas, and if only one in twelve of the church members now are bad, they are in apostolic succession. Men never stay out of business and the professions because there are shysters, quacks and rascals in their ranks, and the man who stays out of the church on such a plea is the greatest hypocrite of all and the biggest fool in town. Besides, you don't know all about the fellow you criticize. You see only one side of him and God sees all sides. He may have heredity and temper to contend with and the sum of his life must determine his worth. No man will go either to heaven or hell who ought not to, and had you not rather live in the church awhile with a few hypocrites than in hell forever with all of them? God is the greatest of all record keepers. Scientists are delving into the past and geologists are reading the records of the ages in the rocks. The perfection of God's records is wonderful. Be sure your sin will find you out; you can't commit a private sin. If it don't come out before you die, it will be published at the judgment.

Christian work. God wants men a women, each in their own sphere, to do all in their power for him. Those who believe women should not speak in meeting and that Paul opposed them, don't read their Bibles closely enough. Paul made his home where there were four women preachers and some of his sweetest messages were sent to women workers. I hate a feminine man or a masculine woman, and it would be a shame for a woman to preach like a man or a man to preach like women. The sphere of each is well defined and therein should they labor for the glory of God. Christ and I will not go to the saloon, Christ and I will not go to the theatre, Christ and I will not go to the card party or dance. The bloom of profession may be beautiful, but the test comes in the fruits of our works. The best answered prayer is where man does half and God half. Go to work, all of you, each with his own class and circle, and God will wonderfully bless your labors in the salvation of the people of Bryan.

At the close of the service 300 people gave their hands, pledging themselves to labor for the salvation of souls.

PATRICK'S TRIAL.

Valet Jones Still Causing Sensation in Court as to His Evidence.

New York, April 10.—A feature of the examination of Valet Jones during yesterday's session of the hearing concerning the death of William M. Rice, the Texas millionaire, was a line of questioning which led to a heated scene at the noon recess between Attorney Moore, who represents Lawyer Patrick and Assistant District Attorney Osborne. The cause of the dispute was Mr. Osborne's success in wringing from Valet Jones certain testimony against Patrick. Frederick House is one of Patrick's lawyers. Previous to Jones turning state evidence, Mr. House represented the valet also. By a ruling of the court Mr. Osborne was allowed to ask the witness what he and Patrick had told their lawyer at the first interview in the Tombs. Jones replied that it was a complete confession of murder differing not at all from his story at the hearing.

During all the long cross-examinations of Jones, which ended only an hour before recess, Mr. Moore made it apparent that this sledgehammer question were all directed at one point. He sought to show that Jones' story was concocted at the instigation of some of the men interested in disproving the second will. He laid special stress on Jones' conversation with Captain Baker the executor of the first will. The cross-examination was full of insinuations and recriminations against Jones, Mr. Osborne and Mr. Battle, the latter Jones' special counsel. When at last Mr. Moore said: "We are through with the witness," Mr. Osborne, on the rebuttal asked quietly:

"Jones, to whom did you first tell the story of your having chloroformed Mr. Rice? I mean the same story you told here."

"To Mr. House," was the reply. The question apparently was a surprise. Mr. House flushed and looked hard at the table. Patrick tugged at his beard and Mr. Moore sprang to his feet.

"We object to that question," he shouted. "We have some rights in this court. Anything the witness said to his counsel involves the prisoner. It is a professional confidence which must not be revealed."

But Justice Jerome said: "Objection overruled," and Jones then described at length his first interview with Mr. House in the Tombs counsel room. On Patrick's advice he told the truth, he said. "I told Mr. Rice that I murdered Mr. Rice," said Jones. "I told him I gave him mercury pills where I got the chloroform and all about it."

"Did you tell him about the oxalic acid?"

"Yes."

"And what did Mr. House say?"

"He told Patrick that it would not do for him to put all the blame on me. That he was as much in it as I was."

Mr. Osborne brought out the fact that the talk with Mr. House occurred several days before the district attorney had the faintest idea that the prisoner would make a confession.

"What did Patrick say to Mr. House?" Mr. Osborne asked.

"Why, he explained that he would put Rice out of the way because the drafts were coming due from Texas," said Jones.

The court then took recess.

A few minutes later Justice Jerome went out and the courtroom was cleared of every one except lawyers and reporters. Mr. Osborne arose from his side of the table and started for the door. Mr. Moore met him at the corner of the table. "Mr. Osborne," he began in a quiet voice, "I want to tell you that your conduct in making Jones tell of his talk with Mr. House was unprofessional. It was not right."

The district attorney's face was crimson in a minute. "I only did it," he said, "because of your insinuations that we concocted Jones' story. You have cast reflections upon Captain Baker. He is my friend. I guard his reputation as zealously as I do my own."

At the mention of his name Captain Baker stepped forward and stood at Mr. Osborne's elbow.

"You have not strengthened your case any," said Mr. Moore. "You have only put Mr. House in a hole. I tell you it was not fair."

"I don't give a damn for the way you sum up the state," shouted Mr. Osborne, referring to Mr. Moore being a recent arrival in this city. "You attend to your own side of the case. If you had a professional sense of honor you would not interfere with me in trying the case out of court."

Amid a running fire of accusation and recrimination Mr. Osborne went back to his office. Mr. Moore followed him as far as the hall.

At the afternoon session telephone operators testified that the telephone of Mr. Rice and that of Patrick were connected twice during the evening of the day that Mr. Rice died.

Then came the testimony as to the package delivered to Jones by the express company from Galveston, Tex. This was followed by employees of the banking firm of Swenson & Co., as to checks presented bearing the signature of Mr. Rice and the refusal of the bank to cash on account of the irregularity of the signature of Mr. Rice.

THE BUSINESS LEAGUE.

A Busy and Profitable Meeting Held Tuesday Afternoon.

Out of respect to the revival services held nightly by the Rev. George Stuart, the Business League held the regular monthly meeting at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was largely attended and much business was transacted.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Major McInnis made an able and comprehensive report on the status of the girl's industrial school.

The good roads committee was empowered to hire a guard for the county convicts now at work on the public roads, the League agreeing to pay $12.50 a month for two months to give the plan a thorough trial.

The committee on establishing a ladies' waiting room for ladies who come to Bryan to trade reported that much interest had been shown by the merchants, and the committee asked for further time to mature their plans. Granted.

It was resolved that Col. L. L.
Foster be invited to read a paper on
"Bryan as an Educational Center"
at the next meeting; that L. L. Mc-Innis be invited to read a paper on "Good Roads to Bryan," and Gen.
H. B. Stoddard on "How to Get the Greatest Good Out of a Business League."

It was unanimously and enthusiastically carried that the Third Regiment band be admitted to free membership in the League and that their dues be remitted on condition that they furnish music at all the regular monthly meetings.

It was announced that the League,
through the secretary, had invited
the delegation of New York business men who will tour the state the last of the month to visit Bryan and the College. Pending their answer no action was taken. If they accept a called meeting will be held to arrange for their reception and entertainment.

A proposition to the League to build a cotton factory in Bryan was referred to the following committee for investigation: J. A. Myers, Tyler Haswell and Jno. M. Lawrence.

Messrs. Saunders, Law and Burger were appointed as delegates to the Industrial Convention to be held at Hillsboro on the 25th of April.

There being no further business,
the League adjourned.

The members of Camp J. B. Robertson, U. C. V., met Monday and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Gen. H. B. Stoddard, commander; R. L. Weddington, first lieutenant; John W. Gee, second lieutenant; W. G. Mitchell, adjutant; W. B. Baker, color bearer;
Dr. J. D. West, chaplain. Miss Lilian Parks was elected sponsor to attend the Waco and Memphis encampments. Gen. H. B. Stoddard,
J. F. Parks, W. B. Baker and Dr.
West were elected delegates to the Waco and Memphis reunions.

Dr. J. L. Fountain has returned from Austin, following the adjournment of the legislature, and will be found in his office after Monday.
The called session of the legislature will convene in August to take up the general appropriation bill and the work of redistricting the state.
Dr. Fountain has ably represented the interests of the Fifty-fifth district, adopting a safe, conservative and business-like course in keeping with the spirit of the times.

Capt. Adams gives notice that April 30 is the last day for the payment of taxes without the penalty.
On all taxes delinquent after that date the additional penalty will have to be paid. This notice is given for the benefit of many who have not settled their account with the state.

The A. O. U. W. meets tonight.
Lodge will be called to order at 7 o'clock instead of 8 for this meeting.
All members are requested to attend.

first-class barbers in attendance.

The Shakespeare Club will meet with Mrs. Astin today from 2 to 4 p. m., so as not to conflict with the 4 o'clock prayer meeting.

The Exchange barber chop and bath rooms are new, neat and clean, with three first-class barbers. Dan J. Ford Proprietor. 115

Cole Bros. have just received a brought here yesterday and lodged jail, charged with horse theft.

L. A. Hudson of Conroe was in Bryan the past week visiting his sister, Mrs. S. J. Guest.

A negro named Will Hill was lodged in jail Tuesday, charged with taking a child.

From this date the City Market will close at 10 a. m. and open at 3 p.
m. each day. 113

Questions for Women

Do you have periodical pains? Do you have frequent backaches? Are you nervous? Are you continually exhausted? Do you suffer every month? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions you are suffering from the ills which Wine of Cardui cures.
Do you appreciate what perfect health would be to you? After taking Wine of Cardui, thousands like you have realized it. Wine of Cardui insures freedom from female diseases. At each recurring menstrual period, if care be not taken, slight ailments will appear.
Nervous strain, loss of sleep, cold or indigestion start disorders which are not noticeable at first, but day by day steadily grow into troublesome complications. Wine of Cardui, used just before the menstrual period, will keep the female system in perfect condition and render it invulnerable to disease. The medicine is taken quietly at home. There is nothing like it to help women enjoy good health. Wine of Cardui costs only $1. Test this remedy, which is endorsed by 1,000,000 cured women.

WINE OF CARDUI

I take pleasure in writing a few lines in praise of your wonderful medicine, Wine of Cardui. It is the best medicine I ever heard of. I am thirty-six years old. I have been sick all my life.
I had a dozen doctors, but none of them did me any good. I have taken one bottle of Wine of Cardui and will take another with Black-Draught. I have been married six years and have a baby five years old. I had womb and kidney trouble. My monthly period was so bad that sometimes it came twice a month. I was too sick to do for a family of three. I was in bed when I got the bottle of Wine of Cardui. Now I am up and can do most of my work. When I was sick I could not sleep at night. I sleep well at night now. A friend of mine advised me to use Black-Draught with Wine of Cardui.
